

Dear Touraine,

As the publisher of Heart & Soul Magazine, I am writing to express my strong support for your organization, “Spinning for Life,” which brings high visibility to Non-Hodgkin’s Lymphoma Cancer and promotes health awareness. You have stressed to me numerous times it is your mission to get the word out about Non-Hodgkin’s Lymphoma, and as a TRUE BELEIVER and a SUPPORTER of your mission I am writing this letter on your behalf.

Heart & Soul Magazine has a continuing interest in “Spinning for Life” and the programs which you plan to incorporate worldwide. The possibility of furthering our readers understanding of Non-Hodgkin’s Lymphoma is important to us.

Touraine, I have spoken with you on several occasions, viewed your website and materials www.spinningforlife.com and have found it to be very resourceful. Spinning For Life offers a full comprehensive website that allows cancer patients, family members or just general readers to navigate easily on your site and gather information regarding Hon-Hodgkin’s Lymphoma and cycling tips. It is wonderful to see that you are doing great things in the community and that you are making a difference. Your story is an inspiration. The transformation that you have made and your story are truly MOTIVATIONAL.

Your site was user friendly and I can tell a lot of attention and heart went into the making it appealing to your viewers. I wish you continued success.

Keep up the great work and I hope to see you doing even greater things in the near future. Heart & Soul looks forward to showcasing you in our magazine in hopes of helping to bring more knowledge and information to our readers about Non-Hodgkin’s Lymphoma. Thank you for your initiative in this respect and we hope you have continued success with your organization.

Sincerely,

Edwin V. Avent
